

Toddler Newsletter

Week of October 3, 2025

We love seeing the children come into school with a smile! They enjoy waking up Rudy, our bear puppet. They had fun dancing with ribbons and jumping on the circles in the yard. Kindly send labelled jackets for cooler days. We prefer mittens to gloves because it gives us more time to play outside.

Reminders:

Oct. 4- Blessing of the Animals at the Epiphany Church (22nd Street & 2nd Avenue), 12:00

Oct. 5-Please join us for 11:00 Mass, followed by the ESF Walk. Mrs. Caulfield will be there. This is an important fundraiser for our beautiful school. We appreciate your support!

Oct. 10-half day, dismissal at 11:20 for toddlers, Mateo's 3rd birthday

Oct. 13-school closed for Columbus Day

Oct. 21-Art Farm-A visitor from the Art Farm will bring small animals to visit our class. If your child attends school on Tuesdays, it's a regular day of school. If your child doesn't attend on Tuesdays, you are invited to bring your child with a grownup for the time the visitor is here. Immediately after the Art Farm visit, your child goes home with their grownup.

Oct. 24-6-9 P.M. Epiphany Family Association (EFA) Family Halloween Party
Oct. 31-9 A.M. Costume Parade at the Lower School (234 East 22nd Street) Halloween is not a school day for Toddlers. You are invited to dress your child in a costume and participate in the parade. Each child is required to be supervised by a grownup at the parade. We will march around the block, then send children home with their families.

Song: Apples & Bananas

I like to eat, eat, eat apples and bananas

I like to eat, eat, eat apples and bananas

I like to eat, eat, eat apples and bananas

I like to eat, eat, eat apples and bananas

Book: Apple Farmer Annie by Monica Wellington

Next week's theme: Farm Animals

